Let me look this over. There was a stipulation dismissing certain of these defendants as subsequent transferees, which would obviate some of your objections. I had asked to push out the discovery and you refused but I am happy to consent.

Dear Ms. Neville,

We are following up regarding the attached discovery deficiencies letters that we've previously sent to you. Unfortunately, you have not responded to these letters in any way or form. According to the current case management notice on file, the deadline for the completion of expert discovery is within a month, October 9, 2015. We are open to discussing these deficiencies further, and perhaps re-visit our earlier discussions as to the proposed transfers stipulation, which would resolve most if not all of the issues with the deficiencies. To that end, we propose a new case management schedule, pushing out the end of expert discovery and the remaining dates, at least another 60 days. Please let us know what you think. We'd prefer to resolve this without court involvement, but we are prepared to bring this before Judge Bernstein if needed.

Thank you,

Anat Maytal
